1. Applicant's election of figure 2 in the reply filed on 4/30/2007 is acknowledged.

Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

2. Claims 5-7 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 4/30/2007.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 12 provides for the use of an apparatus, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1, 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by French (2,616,767). French discloses an apparatus including an inert gas source 15, a body 1, lifting means 6 and manual taps 7.

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a), which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 8 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over French (2,616,767) in view of Torimitsu et al. (6,715,641). French discloses a tap dispenser substantially as claimed but does not disclose an electric valve controlled by software. However, Torimitsu teaches another tap dispenser having a software controlled tap 26 for the purpose of automating the dispensing function. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the apparatus of French with a software controlled electric valve as, for example, taught by Torimitsu in order to automate the dispensing function.

9. Claims 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over French (2,616,767) in view of McHale (5,913,454). French discloses a tap dispenser substantially as claimed but does not disclose the dispenser to be controlled by software with an actuating card. However, McHale teaches another tap dispenser that is controlled by software and is actuated by a card for the purpose of automating the dispensing function. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the apparatus of French with a software control and a card as, for example, taught by McHale in order to automate the dispensing function.

10. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over French (2,616,767) in view of Torimitsu et al. (6,715,641) as applied to claim 8 above, and further in view of Owen (5,031,799). French discloses a tap dispenser substantially as claimed but does not disclose a conical mouth. However, Owen teaches another tap dispenser having a conical mouth 226 for the purpose of achieving a better bottle seal. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the apparatus of French with a conical mouth as, for example, taught by Owen in order to achieving a better bottle seal.

11. Claims 3 and 4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
